Location: Vancouver, Washington

Title and Reason: 6 H.P. Fairmont engine with necessary motor car body with wheels and housing complete for use of Section crew, Section #26.

Section 26, Vancouver consists of four miles double track main line and also several yard tracks Vancouver Yard with headquarters at Vancouver, extreme west end of section. This section heretofore equipped with hand car body mounted with four horse power gasoline (Fairmont) engine furnished by section foreman. This engine has been in use about ten years, is worn out and should be replaced with six horse power Fairmont engine with necessary car body, wheels and housing complete as per sketch and estimate attached. This section crew frequently required to run on heavy grades which diverge from main line at Vancouver Junction and to furnish necessary assistance to crews on that branch in case emergency, very important that they be properly equipped. It is estimated minimum saving account furnishing gas car equipment as compared to hand car $300. per year.
