SCRIP BOOKS

Buy Scrip Books in denominations of $15.00, $30.00 and $50.00. They are a great convenience as they make it unnecessary to carry cash for rail transportation. Coupons may also be exchanged for payment of meals in dining cars, sleeping car accommodations and parlor car seats. Exchange for tickets should be made at ticket office before boarding train. These books are good on all railroads. Ask your Northern Pacific Agent, or address E. E. Nelson, Passenger Traffic Manager, Northern Pacific Railway, St. Paul, Minn.

Bouquets

"I wish to express appreciation for manner in which we were aided in trip from Spokane... Royalty itself could not have received more kindly service and consideration."

"Of all the railroads we traveled—five or six different lines, the food in your famous dining cars was far superior to any of the others."

"We both want to go on record complimenting the very fine service of your railroad. This goes for everybody connected with the Pullman service, dining car service, etc., and especially the fine way in which your engineers handle the stopping and starting of the trains."

"We wish we could tell everyone going to San Francisco Fair to go Northern Pacific through Seattle."

"There is only one word for Northern Pacific travel and that is 'incomparable'."

The above are excerpts from letters from Northern Pacific patrons.

THE ROYAL ROAD TO MT. RAINIER

A royal road leads to Mt. Rainier! Starting from Yakima, Washington, heart of the fertile Yakima Valley fruit region, this road crosses the lofty Cascades at Naches Pass and "tunnels" through towering forests of the big timber country.

Its terminus in Rainier Park is Sunrise Lodge, more than 6,000 feet up on the slopes of the Mountain. Connecting with the National Park Highway, the road continues on to Tacoma and Seattle, a total distance of nearly 200 miles from Yakima.

Known as the Yakima-Sunrise Detour, this trip may be made by Northern Pacific transcontinental passengers in either direction for a cost of only $11.50, including transportation, and luncheon. It is a "highlight" on any Western trip. For details, ask your Northern Pacific Agent, or address

E. E. NELSON, Passenger Traffic Manager
Northern Pacific Ry., St. Paul, Minn.

FAST FREIGHT - Across the West!

FOR more than 50 years Northern Pacific fast freight service has helped supply the tables of the nation with fruits, vegetables, sea foods, dairy foods, meats and other prime products from the Northwest. Over the years this service has been speeded up until today freight train schedules rival those of passenger trains. This service is maintained day in and day out, rain or shine, winter and summer.

Co-ordinated with free store-door pick-up and delivery on L. C. L. freight, which is supplemented in Montana by motor truck service of the Northern Pacific Transport Company, complete transportation facilities are available to shippers throughout the territory served by the Northern Pacific Railway.

R. W. CLARK,
Vice-President—Traffic

J. L. BURNHAM,
Western Traffic Manager
