

ORDER FOR DELIVERY OF FREIGHT TO DRAYMEN

To Northern Pacific Railway Company:

The undersigned hereby requests Northern Pacific Railway Co. until further notice in writing, to deliver to _____, agent for the undersigned, who is duly authorized to receive and receipt therefor, all freight arriving at _____ Station, consigned to the undersigned, or to the order of the undersigned, or where the undersigned is the person to be notified on arrival, and the undersigned hereby agrees to hold and save harmless, Northern Pacific Railway Co., its officers, agents and employes, from all loss, damage, liability, judgments, costs or expenses of whatsoever character, which it or they may sustain or be subjected to by reason of such delivery, including attorneys' fees, counsel fees, costs, settlements and judgments, and all other expenses paid or incurred in the premises, and the undersigned hereby agrees to pay all freight and other charges due on the freight so delivered. The undersigned also agrees to pay all freight and other charges on outbound shipments made by the undersigned which are waybilled prepaid, in accordance with shipping instructions.

Dated at _____ Station, this _____ day of _____, 19 _____

NOTE:—The above order must be properly filled out and signed in ink. If signed by a firm or corporation, the person signing must in addition to writing name of firm or corporation, sign his name in full (for instance, "A. B. & Co., by John Smith" or "A. B. Company, by John Smith") and when the name of the corporation is signed, the corporate seal must also be attached or stamped thereon.

These orders must be numbered consecutively and kept in station file.

An order must not be destroyed when replaced by another order or canceled but so marked across its face, giving the date of replacement or cancellation, and kept on file.